The terms of the match remain the same as when Britt and Corbett first agreed to box. Each man is to weigh 130 pounds at 6 o'clock on fight day, and Eddle Graney is to referee the bout. Corbett will train at Sheehan's Gymnasium, Ocean Beach, and Britt will prepare himself at Croll's Garden, Alameda.

Those who keep in mind pugilism's historical facts have a fair idea of what will be seen when these knights of the wallop shape up to the clang of the battle-starting gong.

Ten fouls were committed by the Corcorans, which gave the Athletic Association boys five gave the Athletic Association boys five points. In the first half the playing of each team was about even, each throwing two baskets. The Corcorans excelled in passing the ball in the second half, and ran away from their opponents. Draeger and Riohenbacher played best for the Corcorans, and Clum and Prosperi carried off the honors for the Athletic Association. The line-up: Corcoran Cadets. Goals, Fouls.

OLDFIELD ACCEPTS LAMBERJACK'S DEFI

American Consents to Meet Frenchman in a Series of Three Automobile Races.

Dominick Lamberjack, of Paris, who arrived in New York on the Deutsch-land early in the week and brought with him a big French racing car and a motor bicycle racer, met Barney Oldfield and Tom Cooper yesterday in New York and in the course of a discussion Lamber-jack challenged Öldfield to race later in the season.

Jack challenged Oldfield to race later in the season.

Tom Cooper was recently engaged by Oldfield as manager, and he told Lamberjack that his challenge was accepted and that the contract and terms could be arranged later. Both parties, however, seemed agreed that the best two of three races, each held in a different dity-New York, Chicago and Cleveland—would be about the thing.

The match is likely to be arranged for one race at five, one at ten, and one at fifteen miles.

RATHSKELLERS SURPRISE JOLLY FAT MEN'S FIVE

The Rathskeller quint, the tailender in the District League, put a crimp in the champion Fat Men's team last night, on the Rathskeller alleys, winning two games of the set. The Fat Mer two games of the set. The Fat Men bowled up to their usual good form, but the Rathskeller five did its best work of the season, two of its games far exceeding 900. It knocked over 948 pins in the first and won easily, but dropped the second by 77 pins. In the final game both teams did their best work. The Rathskeller team came within five pins of the £,000 mark, while the Fat Men toppled over 946. The 200 scores were as follows: Cooper, 235 and 204; Allison, 226; Lansdale, 222; Harlow, 214, and Crosby, 213. The score:

"Young Corbett," inches shorter, is lighter, a featherweight. But this Corbett chap is fearless and he can fight. Dig up Terry McGovern, ask him. Eddie Hanlon, too, could give convincing testimony on the point.

CHAMPION GANS

Says Famous Lightweight Has Not Deteriorated.

WILL FIGHT ANY OF THEM

Blackburn Refuses to Battle-Won Decision Over Baltimerean When Latter Was III.

Al Herford, manager of Joe Gans, says in a letter to The Times that there is no truth in the report that the lightweight champion ever refused to arrange a match with Joe Blackburn, of Philadelphia, who asserts that he bested Gans recently in a six-round contest. Herford by herself, until she received the desays:
"It is a well-known fact that Gans was taken sick with pneumonia shortly after the bout with Blackburn, and did not do any fighting for two months until modified this by confessing her tipple he met and defeated Willie Fitzgerald at Detroit the other night. As soon as I learned that Gans was feeling all right again I immediately wrote to Blackburn's manager telling him that Gans Few of the Fifty Jails I Have Been In." was prepared to fight him anywhere. Blackburn's representative answered my letter and said that his man would my letter and said that his man would fight Gans, but preferred to tackle some one else so as to give the Baltimore folks a chance to see what ne could do. So I arranged for Blackburn to meet Sam Bolen, of New York. They fought on January 8, and at the end of the lifteenth round the bout was called a draw, although some of the spectators thought that Bolen should have received the award.

Indoor basebull will be revived this evening with a game between the Y. M. C. A. and Carrol' Institute teams, in the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium. Play will be begun prompting at a draw, although some of the spectators thought that Bolen should have received the award.

Blackburn Afraid.

"Before this bout I told Blackburn's mobolists attending the Madison Square convention of the American Motor with Gans, and set the date for Janu-League "show week," the officers of the league have sent out the following ansaying that Blackboon did not care "Automobilists coming to this con-about fighting Gans just yet, as there vention are not required to show their were a lot of fellows that he could meet membership tickets in obtaining their before taking a chance with Joe, as he certificates from the railroad ticket feared, as he said, he might be knocked agent. A certificate will be given to any out. This convinced me that Blackburn person buying a ticket to New York, was merely bluffing and never had any idea of arranging a fight with Gans unless he was assured of getting the loser's

"After Blackburn's poor showing with "After Blackburn's poor showing with Bolen many persons could not figure how he stayed six rounds with Gans, and they are now convinced that Gans was really a sick man when they fought at Philadelphia. I suppose every one knows that Gans has never refused to defend his title against all comers ever since he has been champion. All this talk of Gans going back and not being the puglist he was a year ago is bosh. He is better today than ever, and as soon as he regains his former strength he will quickly demonstrate this fact."
